The Board of Directors may exercise all powers specifically granted to it or the Bank by the provisions of the Federal Reserve Act or these bylaws, and may exercise such incidental powers as shall be necessary to carry on the business of banking within the limitations prescribed by the Federal Reserve Act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors shall not be provided confidential supervisory information and shall not participate in, nor be consulted regarding, bank supervisory matters.

Section 2. Number and Election of Directors. The number and classes of directors, and their election or appointment as the case may be, shall be as provided in section 4 of the Federal Reserve Act.

Section 3. Vacancies. Prior to the expiration of the term of office of any Class A or Class B director and as soon as practical after the occurrence of any vacancy in the Class A or Class B membership of the Board of Directors, the Chair shall take such steps as may be necessary to cause an election to be held in the manner provided by law. A person elected or appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the predecessor's term.

Section 4. Term of Office. Except as provided in section 3 of this Article, a director shall hold office for a term of three years. A director may not be re-elected or reappointed if the director has served two full terms or if, by the end of the new term, the director will have served more than seven continuous years on the Board of Directors. Exceptions may be granted, in exigent circumstances.

Section 5. Chair. The Chair of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and shall exercise those powers that are prescribed by law or by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

In the absence or disability of the Chair of the Board or during a vacancy in that office, the Deputy Chair shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and shall exercise such powers as may be prescribed by law or by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Section 7. Chair Pro-tem. In the absence or disability of the Chair of the Board and Deputy Chair, or during vacancies in those offices occurring at the same time, the remaining Class C director shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may, at any regular or special meeting, fix another day for the next regular meeting, or may elect not to meet in a given month. The number of regular meetings per year shall be as determined by the Board of Directors.

Meetings of the Board of Directors will be held in Kansas City, Missouri; provided, however, that in the discretion of the Board of Directors, meetings may be held in another location designated by the Board of Directors.

Reasonable notice of all regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given by the Chair or Secretary, either by telephone or electronic communication; provided, however, that notice of any such meeting may be dispensed with if a majority of the directors waives such notice. Where notice has been given as required and a quorum of the Board is not present, an Executive Committee meeting may be held in lieu of a Board meeting as provided in section 11 of this Article, and no notice shall be required. Notice of a meeting need not state the purpose of the meeting or the business to be transacted at the meeting.

Section 11. Quorum. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but if a quorum is not present at a duly called meeting of the Board, three or more directors may thereupon meet and act as the Executive Committee. Section 5. Notice of Meetings. Reasonable notice of all regular and special meetings of the Executive Committee shall be given by the Chair or Secretary of the Board, either by mail, telephone, or electronic communication. Notice of a meeting need not state the purpose of the meeting or the business to be transacted at the meeting.

Section 6. Quorum. Three members of the committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but less than a quorum may adjourn from time to time until a quorum is obtained.
